"Give Thanks With a Grateful Heart" was written in 1978 by Henry Smith. The song was his only published worship song out of 300 unpublished compositions. It was written after Smith had trouble finding work after graduating from university. He also suffered from a degenerative condition that eventually left him legally blind.

Give Thanks With A Grateful Heart.

Being grateful can be a difficult task right now. Just navigating the chaos is a challenge. But it's really important to take a moment to give yourself the gift of gratitude. I tried it, and it truly lifted my spirits.

BD&E | Give Thanks With A Grateful Heart

Thanksgiving starts with a sacrifice of praise to God. And then the grateful heart looks for a way to express it in a tangible way—it looks for ways to share what you have with others. Let's take a look at how this passage is lived out in the lives of a couple of people. I.

the table for a renewed practice of giving thanks. We know that gratitude is good, but many of us find it hard to sustain a meaningful life of gratefulness. Four out of five Americans report feeling gratitude on a regular basis, but those private feelings seem disconnected from larger concerns of our public lives. In Grateful, cultural observer and theologian Diana Butler Bass takes on this "gratitude gap" and offers up surprising, relevant, and powerful insights to practice gratitude. Bass, author of the award-winning Grounded and ten other books on spirituality and culture, explores the transformative, subversive power of gratitude for our personal lives and in communities. Using her trademark blend of historical research, spiritual insights, and timely cultural observation, she shows how

We can overcome this gap and make change in our own lives and in the world. With honest stories and heartrending examples from history and her own life, Bass reclaims gratitude as a path to greater connection with god, with others, with the world, and even with our own souls. It's time to embrace a more radical practice of gratitude—the virtue that heals us and helps us thrive.
