Helping students succeed in three main parts: class involvement activities, reading this book, and writing about your learning in an interactive notebook.

Experiential exercises tap into students' intrapersonal and body-kinesthetic intelligences, allowing students to "experience" key social studies concepts firsthand.

History Alive! Pursuing American Ideals centers on the five founding ideals from the Declaration of Independence: equality, rights, liberty, opportunity, and democracy. Each generation has struggled with these ideals. Some have made little progress toward achieving them. Others have made great progress. This book invites students to become engaged in this struggle, from establishing an American republic to the making of modern America. --Website.

Bring Science Alive! is an Integrated program built from the ground up to align to the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS). Bring Science Alive! embodies the new vision for how science should be taught in schools-focusing on big picture concepts and teaching students how to "do science"--rather than memorize facts. [from publisher's website]

"There was no such thing as the Scientific Revolution, and this is a book about it." With this provocative and apparently paradoxical claim, Steven Shapin begins his bold, vibrant exploration of the origins of the modern scientific worldview, now updated with a new bibliographic essay featuring the latest scholarship. "An excellent book."—Anthony Gottlieb, New York Times Book Review "Timely and highly readable. . . . A book which every scientist curious about our predecessors should read."—Trevor Pinch, New Scientist "Shapin's account is informed, nuanced, and articulated with clarity. . . . This is not to attack or devalue science but to reveal its richness as the human endeavor that it most surely is. . . . Shapin's book is an impressive achievement."—David C. Lindberg, Science "It's hard to believe that there could be a more accessible, informed or concise account. . . . The Scientific Revolution should be a set text in all the disciplines. And in all the indisciplines, too."—Adam Phillips, London Review of Books
